

Company profile

Status April 2023

With 412,500 tonnes of cheese sales (2022) and 2.2 billion euros in turnover (2022), Hochland SE, headquartered in Heimenkirch (Allgäu), is one of Europe's largest private cheese producers with a wide range of products for trade, industry, and gastronomy. The Hochland Group has been 100 percent family-owned since 1927 and employs more than 5,900 people worldwide, over 2,300 of them in Germany. Hochland stands for a variety of well-known brands such as Hochland, Almette, Grünländer, Patros, Gervais and Cathedral City. With the Simply V and Beetgold brands, the company demonstrates its innovative strength for plant-based products. Besides two German cheese factories in Heimenkirch (Allgäu) and Schongau (Upper Bavaria), the Hochland Group has further cheese production facilities in France, Spain, Poland, Romania, Russia, and the USA. In addition, two other German production facilities for plant-based foods and the mechanical engineering subsidiary Hochland Natec belong to the Hochland Group. Hochland is innovative and continuously adapts to the market in order to meet the relevant demands of retailers and consumers. The company's mission statement is to inspire people with products and to take responsibility for people and the environment.

Images:

© Hochland

Headquarter of Hochland SE in Heimenkirch (Allgäu)

Download in the Hochland press area: hochland-group.com

Contact:

Michaela Matthäus, Hochland SE, phone +49 (8381) 502-692, michaela.matthaeus@hochland.com