

Company profile

Status January 2026

With 440,100 tonnes of cheese sales (2024) and 2.36 billion euros in turnover (2024), Hochland SE, headquartered in Heimenkirch (Allgäu), is one of Europe's largest private cheese producers with a wide range of products for trade, industry, and gastronomy. The Hochland Group has been 100 percent family-owned since 1927 and employs more than 6,300 people worldwide, over 2,300 of them in Germany. Hochland stands for a variety of well-known brands such as Hochland, Almette, Grünländer, Patros and Gervais. With the Simply V brand, the company demonstrates its innovative strength for plant-based products. Besides two German cheese factories in Heimenkirch (Allgäu) and Schongau (Upper Bavaria), the Hochland Group has further cheese production facilities in France, Spain, Poland, Romania and Russia. In addition, the mechanical engineering subsidiary Hochland Natec is part of the Hochland Group. Hochland is innovative and continuously adapts to the market in order to meet the relevant demands of retailers and consumers. The company's mission statement is to inspire people with products and to take responsibility for people and the environment.
